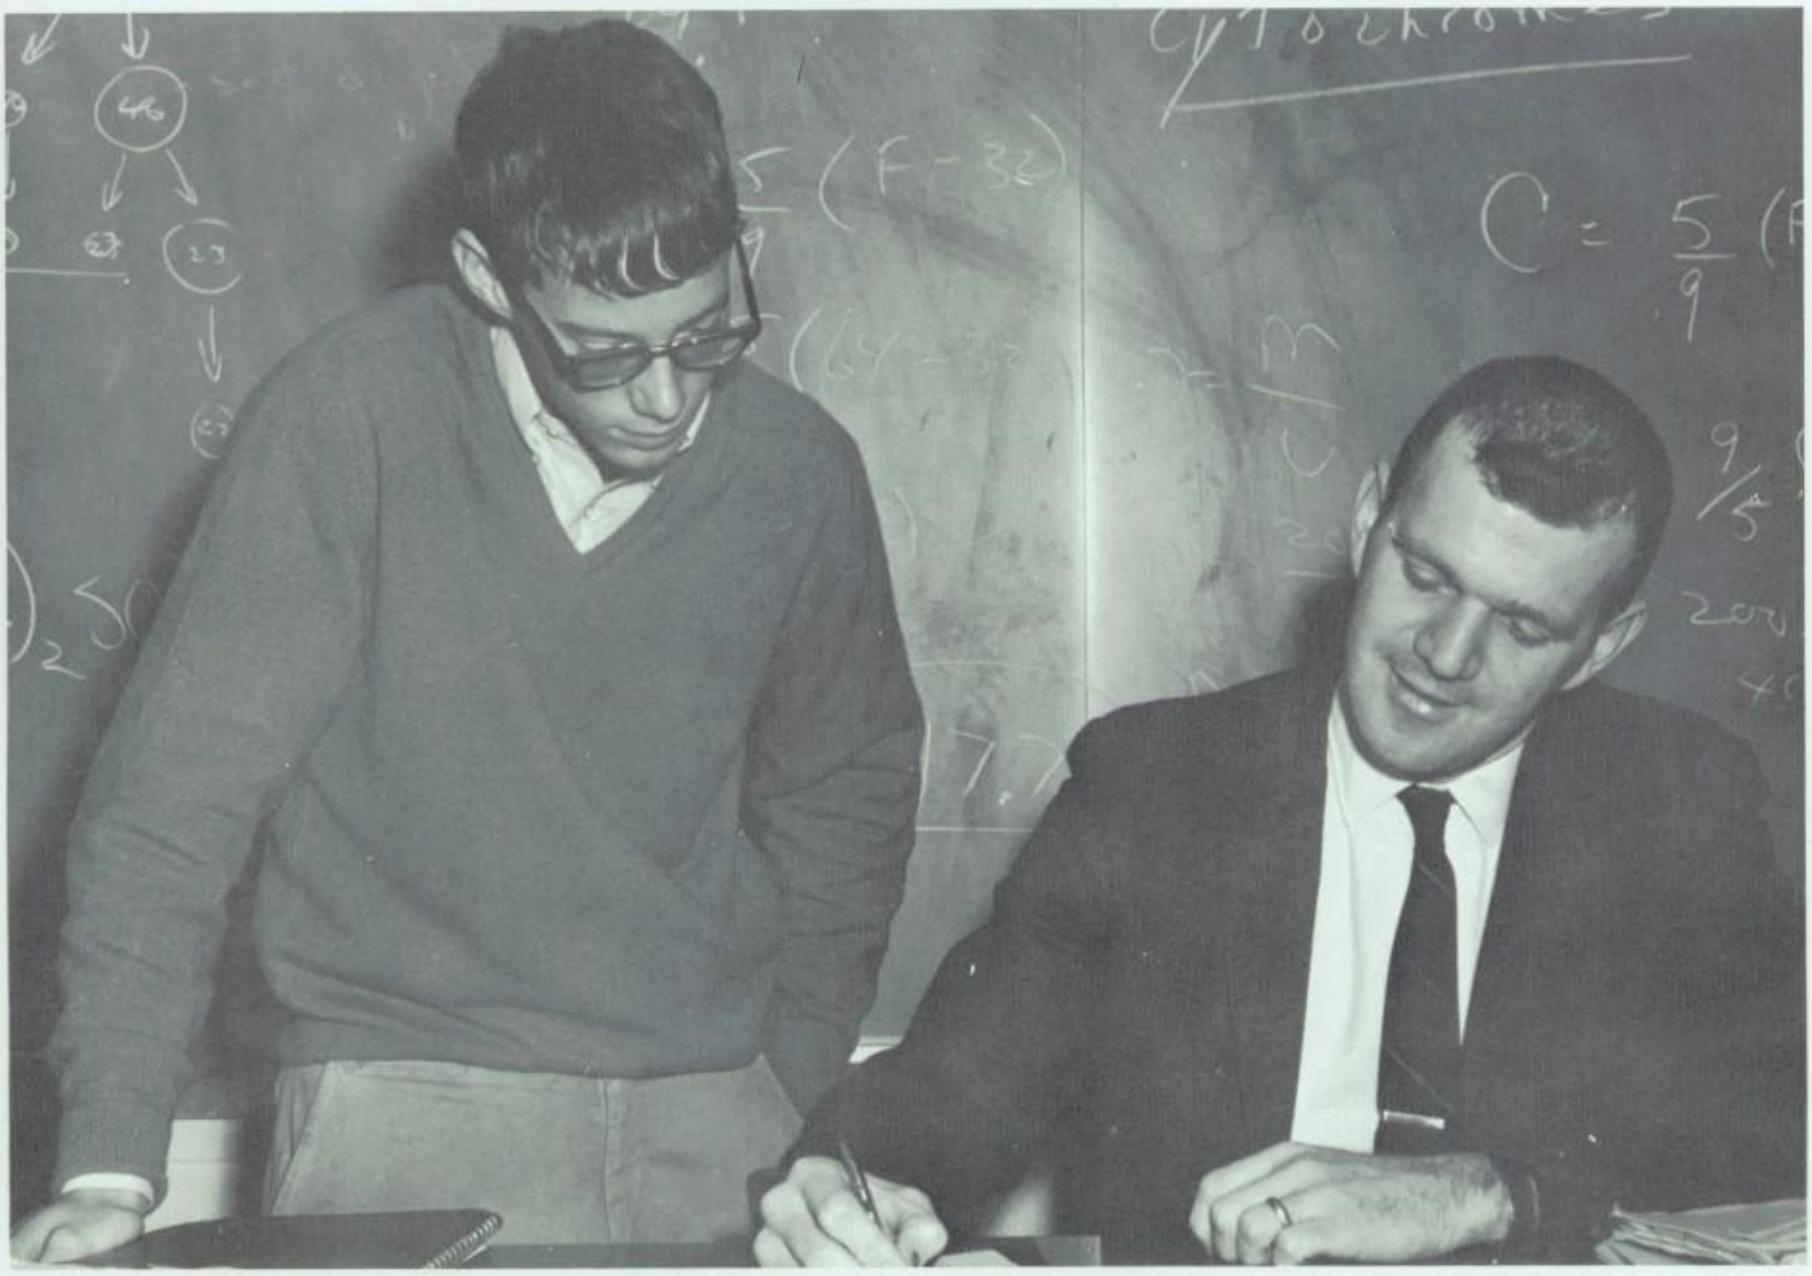
Coach Baldwin Wins Dedication



Dennis Baldwin finds time to help student with individual problem.

Coach Baldwin experiences the agony of defeat.

Since he possesses never ending enthusiasm, a constant smile, and ever present South High spirit, Mr. Dennis R. Baldwin has been honored by the Senior Class of 1970, with the dedication of this Somecka. He has not only taught his students the many aspects of biology, but he has also found time to help them with their problems. In addition to creating an interest in his classes, Mr. Baldwin has made the soccer team an important part of South, as he has coached the soccer Sabres in their second victorious season. He displays more South spirit and interest by devoting immeasurable time coaching the swimming and junior varsity baseball teams. By his many contributions in scholastic as well as sports activities and because of his genuine kindness, Dennis Baldwin has proved to be a valuable and appreciated asset to South Mecklenburg High School.

Five Sabres Attend Governor's School

Cindy Carriker – art student

Susan Miller – English student

South is proud to have five alumni of the highly selective Governor's School. These five spent six weeks of this past summer studying under some of the most accomplished professionals in the state. Not pictured is Suzanne Dickinson who was selected to attend as a violin student. Cindy Carriker studied in the field of art creating acrylics and collages from her original sketches. As a dance student, Debby Moore studied in the field of modern dance concentrating mainly on body movement. Susan Miller, an English student, studied contemporary poetry and lyrics, "absurd drama", and new novels written in new styles. Cader Olive attended as a science student studying extensively in the field of Biology. These students not only enjoyed a summer of fun and fellowship, but also one of rewarding education and memories of a once in a lifetime experience.

Valuable Experiences Gained at Summer Conferences

During the summer at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, Ginny Owen and Dell Kendall attended Girl's State, sponsored by the American Legion. Here the girls were able to observe government and political science theories as enacted in weekly activities. They met a variety of people, heard various speakers, including an Indiana senator and Secretary of State of North Carolina, Thad Eure. On the final night of the conference, Dell sang in a talent show which climaxed a week of learning.

Along with meeting many types of people, Craig McDonald and Mike Hague learned much about politics and North Carolina government at Boy's State this summer. They attended lectures with various government leaders, divided into parties, and held conventions and rallies. Mike was elected Governor of Boy's State and went to Washington to represent South at Boy's Nation. As a result of this conference, Mike and Craig were able to gain valuable knowledge about running a government smoothly.

Duncraggon Inn, a ninety-year-old hotel in the mountains of Hendersonville, North Carolina was home this past summer to six South students. Laura Yandell, Linda Pulliam, Judyellen Abramson, Susan Starnes, Linda Bursley, and Jack Hobbs spent an unforgettable week with students from various backgrounds who were attending this annual Civitan Citizenship Conference. Popular discussions among the delegates included religion, race, parental relationships, and world problems. South's representatives all agree that this week was truly an experience in human relations.

On the basis of her outstanding character, service, scholarship, and leadership, Dell Kendall was selected to receive South's Daughter's of the American Revolution Award. The senior class nominated the young ladies whom they felt had given the most time and effort to their school. The final decision was made by faculty members. Dell served as Secretary of the Student Council, and was active in Inter-Club Council, Choir, Interkeys, and Teen Tones.

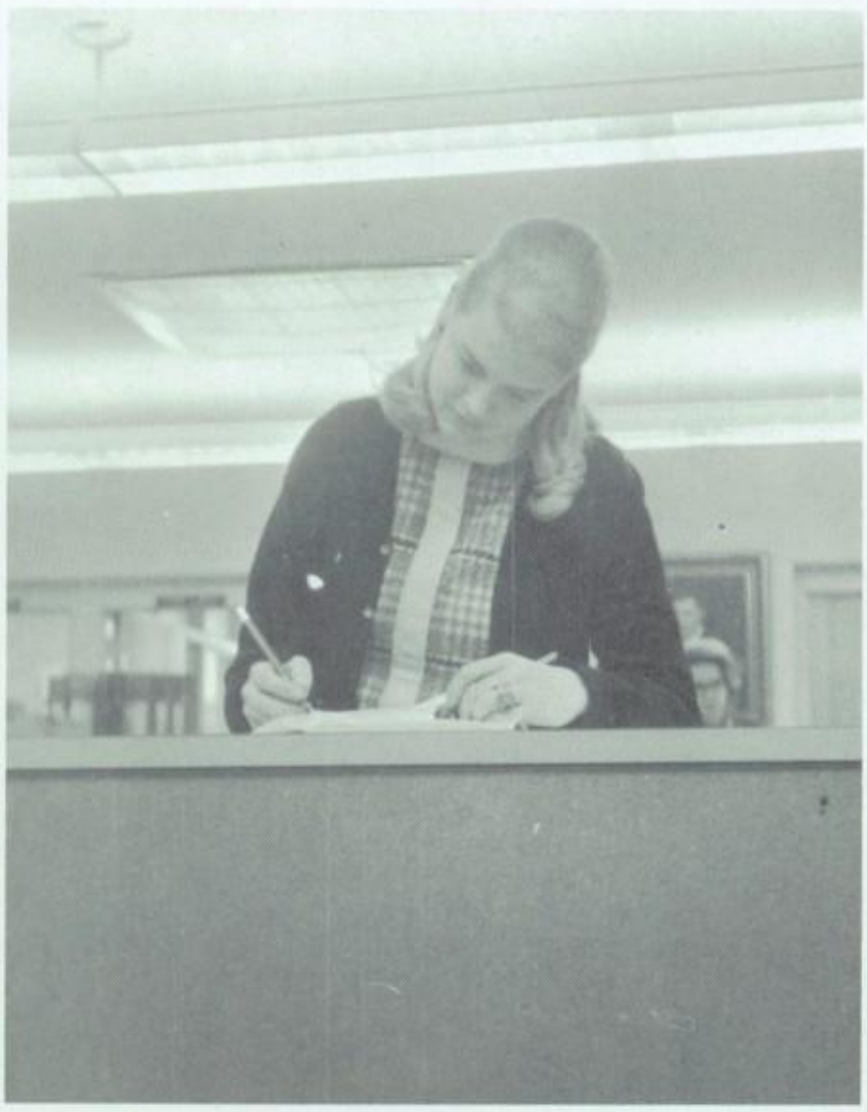
From June 22 to August 1, B. Lynn Irwin attended a program at the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana. The purpose of this program sponsored by the National Science Foundation was to familiarize rising high school seniors with engineering and with college life.

The forty-one participants attended classes on the college junior level which began at 8:00 A.M. and ended at 9:00 P.M. The classes varied in subjects thus giving the students an opportunity to explore many areas of engineering such as chemical, civil, mechanical, agricultural, nuclear, and aeronautical. The program called for much work on the part of the student, but the experience and knowledge gained was invaluable.

Service Throughout the Year Earns Merit

Each year the Interkeys choose a senior boy who they think best shows the qualities of leadership, character, and service. Fud Hayes, because of his willingness to serve South, is the recipient of this year's award. His responsibilities have included co-captain of the football team, President of the Monogram Club, and treasurer of the Interact Club.

Miss Debby Moore has been chosen as this year's recipient of the Interact Service Award. The winner is selected on the basis of a sound character, and leadership and service to South. During the past three years, Debby has been a cheerleader, a delegate to the Governor's School, and a winner of the Miss Teenage Charlotte pageant.



The Key Club selects a girl each year who best expresses their ideals of character, leadership, and service. Miss Dell Kendall has been chosen as the winner of the Key Club Service Award based on her constant willingness to serve South and for continuing the club tradition as a model of intelligence, personality, and hard work.

Dominique Joly – exchange student from France

Jürgen Adomeit – exchange student from Germany

The Charlotte Exchange Student Program promotes international understanding by sponsoring two programs – the Americans Abroad Program and the Foreign Exchange Program.

During the summer of 1969 two of South's rising seniors went abroad under the Americans Abroad Program. Cindy Millsaps, spending three months in Denmark, was given the opportunity to tour castles, visit museums, and become acquainted with the Danish people and their customs. Mark Jorgenson, while spending the summer in Chile, attended school with his "brother" and also traveled to Argentina.

Dominique Joly, a student from Nancy, France, who stayed with Sandy Streeter, participated in extra-curricular activities by being a member of the National Honor Society, and Interkeys. Jurgen Adomeit, who is from Bremen, Germany, quickly became familiar to all Sabres because of his participation in the marching band and National Honor Society. Both Dominique and Jurgen have enriched the student body through their willingness to become a part of South.

After exciting summers abroad Cindy and Mark come back to South and reality.

Alumni Return To South's "Happening"

1969 Homecoming Queen: Miss Jan Selzer

1968 Homecoming, Prissy Myers, shivers while awaiting her introduction.

Debby Moore radiates the excitement of a spectacular Homecoming Show.

Jan Selzer gasps in amazement as she is announced as winner.

On October 24 South staged "A Happening" featuring the marching band and Homecoming nominees. Walking through a psychedelic arch, the twenty Homecoming nominees were presented following the band's rendition of "King of the Road", "Hey Big Spender", and "The Happening." The band climaxed the halftime show with its own version of "A Happening" featuring a hundred uninhibited band members.

The following night the Sabres continued the "Happening" at the Homecoming Dance. With irredescent zodiac signs and black lights decorating the cafeteria, students danced to the beat of "The Looking Glass." The crowning of Jan Selzer as Homecoming Queen climaxed South's "Happening."

Co-captains Eddie Michael and Fud Hayes crown the lovely Jan Selzer, Homecoming Queen 1969.

As reflected in the "Looking Glass", Homecoming Dance Band, the night is a dazzling success.

Alumni experience "A Happening" as they move and groove to the music.

"Hey Day", a Student Council original was a popular project as well as a great money making scheme. By letting students pay a certain amount for various privileges for the day the Student Council made over $1000.

Mike Hague, president of the Student Council, the sponsors, along with the other members which included homeroom presidents and class officers, planned activities and helped solve student problems.

Honor Week, victory dances, Sadie Hawkins Day, the Thanksgiving Food Drive, the Valentines Dance, the changing of the dress code, and the inter-school exchange student program were some of the projects of the Student Council. Through active work and involvement the Student Council represented as accurately as possible, the true feelings and opinions of the South students.

The club hoped to solve problems around South which the student council for some reason may have overlooked. The SSOA, under president, B. Lynn Irwin, and advisor, Mr. Gaskins, had a very active year.

In January, members of South's Debate Club attended the State Debate Workshop at Chapel Hill, N. C. The members participated in debates to polish their skills.

Bill Nutall, president, and Miss Shirley, sponsor, arranged debates on various topics. The Debate Club encouraged thinking and reasoning and also using knowledge.

Producing a Somecka which would be meaningful to every Sabre was the ambition of every member of the annual staff. Debbie Instone, advised by Mrs. Morris, had the ceaseless job of editing the annual. Work, which began in the summer, included everything from scheduling pictures, drawing layouts, writing copy and identifying pictures to cropping, erasing in triplicate and writing heads and captions.

The staff, consisting of 23 members, was divided into smaller staffs which did individualized work on the various sections of the book. All the hours, both in and out of school, which were spent to meet deadlines, were given in order for each South student to have a Somecka which would be a reminder of memories as well as a pictorial history of 1969-70.

The exuberance of South's cheerleaders united the Sabres into a group with a common goal–to win. In addition to cheering at every football and basketball game, our cheerleaders baked spirit cakes, made spirit posters, and marched in the Carrousel Parade. Each team member would sense by the "We're Number One" led by the cheerleaders that the Sabres were behind them all the way.

Lettergirls Exemplify Spirit

Performing and cheering at football and soccer games, wrestling matches and several basketball and baseball games took up a large part of the year for South's 1969–70 Lettergirls. The Lettergirls also represented South at the Carrousel Band Showcase and the Azalea Festival.

These seven Sabres, headed by Peggy Stewart, began working on routines in the summer. By spelling "SABRES" out for all to see, the Lettergirls displayed the pride which each South student possesses. "Big Spender" and "San Jose" came to be two of the Lettergirl's major routines.

Orchestra Adds A Cultural Note

Mr. Neel conducts orchestra in Christmas program at Ovens Auditorium.

Composed of approximately forty–five members, the orchestra performed several times during the year. At Christmas time the orchestra and choir produced "Christmas is . . . " which was given at Myers Park Auditorium. The program included popular Christmas music as well as "Glory to God" by Mozart and the "Hallelujah Chorus" by Handel.

Under the direction of Mr. Rayfield Neel, the orchestra also performed at the spring concert , a formal production given by the entire vocal and instrumental department. The talented orchestra added a cultural note to South's music department.

Sabre Band Captures

Winning first place in the Carrousel Band Showcase, performing at each football game and giving concerts for the school were just some of the highlights of the hard year of work which South band members had. Under the direction of Mr. Rayfield Neel, the marching band, which transforms into the concert band after football season, intrigued everyone with their precise marching and their professional sound.

The sophomore band, whose members eventually replace the seniors in the marching band, performed Mr. Neel's popular arrangement of Rudolph in the Christmas program for the school. The two bands of South are parts of the school which are always in action.

Choral Department Sounds Out

Choir, Teen Tones, South Men, Girls' Ensemble and the two mixed choruses comprise the choral department of South. These groups involve about 320 students in a number of programs and projects. The groups performed at school functions and also visited many civic groups to perform.

The music groups directed by Mrs. Larue Perry involved much time and effort for the students, but the personal satisfaction gained through their performance was evident in their sound.

Honor Society Attributes

South's combination service and leadership club, the National Honor Society, began the year by selling programs at every home football game. On November 18, the 38 new members who were inducted had maintained a 2.5 average for two consecutive semesters and had attained the qualities of a leader.

After the fall inductions, the N.H.S. attacked their major money-making service project, publishing and selling directories. Tutoring was also done by the members of the N.H.S. The money made from these projects was used to finance a scholarship for a deserving club member. Craig McDonald, President, and Mrs. Harris, advisor, helped demonstrate the fine qualities that each member must possess. Being a member of the N.H.S. is surely a reward for hard work.

Fall inductions for N.H.S., begins with speech from club's president, Craig McDonald.

Ability to serve is the basic requirement for the Interact Club. The money which was made from the various service projects was used to buy corsages for the Lettergirls and to support an international project.

Interkeys, the girls service club of South, led by president Anne Renfro and advisor Mrs. Nichols, centered their projects around helping South and its students. The Interkeys began the year by helping with the orientation of uncertain sophomores to their new habitat. They also served those outside of South by collecting old clothes and toys and taking them to Western Carolina Center in Morganton. On October 11, the club inducted new members bringing the mid-year total to thirty members.

Their biggest project of the year was College Day on December 18. This project enabled students to get first hand information from college students who were home for the holidays. Serving South and its students kept the Interkeys in motion throughout the year.

Key Club Unlocks Door To Service

Supporting both local and national projects kept the twenty-eight boys of the Key Club busy during 1969-70. By selling spirit shakers for the athletic games, the Key Club was able to raise some funds which were helpful in purchasing corsages for the cheerleaders at football games, building the scoreboard for the baseball field, printing the complimentary basketball schedules, and sponsoring the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

The Key Club also served as local library helpers, collected Christmas toys and clothes for underprivileged children, and supported Phung Thi Mai, the Key Club orphan in Saigon, Vietnam. The Key Club, whose president is Frank Redd and whose sponsors are Mr. Herndon and Mr. Hamrick, has shown its effectiveness and value through active service during the year.

Any boy who has lettered in a varsity sport is eligible for membership in the Monogram Club. These athletically-inclined boys serve South by working at home basketball games. The members sold tickets, worked in the concession stand, swept the gym floor during halftime and cleaned up the gym after the game. This service was also performed at home wrestling matches.

The student-faculty game is sponsored by the Monogram Club. This athletic competition, which pits students against teachers, has been very popular through the years. Money made by the club is used to pay for letters and equipment for the athletes. The sixty-three members of the Monogram Club contribute greatly to the betterment of South.

French Club Aids Fluency

Early in the year, eight members of the French Club attended a meeting of the Alliance Francaise, a city wide French Club. Here members learned of the many opportunities available for those interested in foreign relations.

At Christmas time, the club decorated a tree "French Style" to try and capture the spirit of Christmas in a foreign mood.

In the spring the French Club with president Susan Starnes and advisor Mrs. Phillips, worked together with the other language clubs to produce the Tri Language Banquet. The French Club helped the many students interested in French to become more involved and better acquainted with the language.

Latin Club Offers Variety For Members

Mr. Loyd, professor at Davidson, speaks to interested Latin Club members.

Made up of 49 members, the Latin Club had an active year of speakers and programs. Dr. Charles Lloyd a professor of English at Davidson spoke to the club about the advantages of having a good Latin background. Jurgen Adomeit, the foreign exchange student from Germany also spoke to them. In the spring several of the club members attended the State Junior Latin Convention held at Chapel Hill in March.

The members of the Latin Club led by president Skipper Goldsmith and sponsor, Mrs. Mayes, climaxed the year by participating in the annual Tri-Language Banquet.

Demonstrations on the art of Mexican cooking by a chef from Pepe' Taco was just one of the interesting programs planned for the Spanish Club. At Christmas-time the club members planned a party at which they took turns breaking the pinãta, a decorated paper maché figure which is filled with candles and prizes. The Spanish Club, led by president Linda Bursley and sponsored by Miss Osbourne, consisted of approximately 90 members.

In the spring the Spanish Club participated in the Inter-Language Banquet. The club allowed students to play an active role in learning the different aspects of the Spanish language and culture.

Drama Club Produces "Blithe Spirit"

South's Drama Club, which stresses complete involvement for each member, had an active year which included meetings with guest speakers, skits, and tours of TV stations and theatres.

The major project of the club was producing plays for the school. Blithe Spirit by Noel Coward was the first three-act play given by the Drama Club. A second major production and several major one-act plays were also performed.

With Tobi Wallace as president and Miss Curtis and Mrs. Gill as advisors, the Drama Club took on the new aspect of a service club. The club gave benefit productions for orphanages, rest homes, and rehabilitation centers. Through acting and working behind the scenes, the 140 members of the Drama Club were able to reach many people both in and out of school.

Clubs Cultivate Art And Literature

Mrs. Guest shows Cindy Carriker how to add finishing touches to her work.

Promoting an interest in and an appreciation of art in the school and community is the purpose of the Art Club. The 45 members, along with president, Pat Knight, and advisor Mrs. Guest, met once a month to discuss art techniques. Activities of the Art Club included a water color contest, club demonstrations, and the major project was the Shoney's Christmas window. The climax of the year was a spring art show.

Under the leadership of their president, Beverly McGee, the members of the South High Literary Society broadened their knowledge of literature's great works. At each meeting a different book was discussed such as The Outsiders, Anthem, and Flowers for Algernon (Charley). Mrs. Barbara Perry, who also participated in the discussions, acted as advisor for the club. The club's paperback bookstand benefited its members as well as the other students at South.

F.H.A. Teaches the Art of Homemaking

Projects such as making an exhibit for the Mecklenburg Fair, attending the District Rally at Bessemer City, planning a Bon Fire, working at the Rehabilitation Center, and putting on a Father's Fashion Show kept the 41 members of the FHA busy during the year.

In addition to the monthly projects of the Future Homemakers of America, the club also had monthly programs. These programs included speeches by the foreign exchange students, a fashion show, and a program on drug addiction.

Through well-planned activities, the FHA, under the leadership of Rita Phifer, president, and Mrs. Peggy Jackson, advisor, helped prepare interested students to become better homemakers.

F.T.A. Guides Future Teachers

On October 25, members of the Future Teachers of America Club attended the State Convention held in Fayetteville, N.C. at Methodist College. At the convention new methods of teaching were discussed and new ideas were brought up. During National Education Week the FTA gave all the teachers and staff members apples to show their concern and appreciation. As a Christmas project, the FTA adopted a family for which they provided food, toys, clothes, and a Christmas tree. In addition to these projects, the FTA also helped students at Bethlehem Center and gave a teacher's tea in April. Cynthia Harrelson, president, and Mrs. Jones, the sponsor, helped organize the club's activities so as to give the members a realistic view of the teaching profession.

Solutions Through Experimentation

Banquets, field trips, lectures, and projects added to the Science Club this year. Under the direction of B. Lynn Irwin, president, and sponsor, Mr. Ramsay, the Science Club experimented with different ideas and expanded interests in the many fields of science.

Probability and computer programming were two of the topics discussed at meetings of the Math Club, whose president was Steve Magee and whose advisor was Mr. Speas. The club provided an outlet through which students interested in math could discuss topics pertaining to math.

South's only co-educational service club, Sabres Out to Serve, concerned itself with helping the school during the past year. The club also became involved with oversea's projects by supporting United States service men in Viet Nam.

The S.O.S. club took various jobs to aid in the upkeep of the school grounds. The climaxing project was a fashion show which replentished the budget for late Spring activities.

This relatively new service club, under the leadership of president, Buddy Burkholder and advisor, Mr. Boykin, has grown to fit the needs of South and the community.

Problems of the world, the nation, the state, and community provided discussion topics for the Young Americans Club. At the first banquet at the S&W Cafeteria the topic of discussion was "Freedom of Speech–or the Lack of it." T. J. Reddy, the poet, and other guest speakers were present at later banquets.

Through student opinion polls, the Young Americans Club, led by president Martha Kramer and sponsor, Miss McRae, tried to determine the causes and solutions to the problems facing students. The club also talked to the candidates for school elections to brief them on the duties and responsibilities of officers. The Young Americans Club made the year one of involvement for the approximately thirty members.

Clubs Provide Exercises For the Mind

Made up of fifteen members, headed by Nanci Barry and Mrs. Marjorie Fowler, the sponsor, the Psychology Club helped to arrange programs which included movies on drugs, and guest speakers on the subjects of ESP, psychology, and mental retardation. The Psychology Club enabled its members to broaden their knowledge on the subjects which interested them.

Any student who is interested in or is taking any business courses could join the Business Club which was under the leadership of Regina Stikeleather. Students learned about some of the problems faced in an office, dress for office work, and about some of the job opportunities open in the Charlotte area. The biggest project of the year was a typing service for the student body. The members typed term papers and other assignments for a small fee. Mrs. Ruby Gorham, a member of the business department, served as advisor for the club.

D.E.C.A., the Distributive Education Club of America, had an active year which included a job interview contest and a modeling contest at Belks.

The purpose of D.E.C.A. is to participate in projects to examine business. Selling peanut brittle was one of this years major projects.

In February, the club sponsored a banquet for the students and their employers. Under the leadership of club president, Bob Goddard, the club prospered.

V.I.C.A., Vocational Instructional Clubs of America, made its debut on South's campus this year. There were 12 charter members with Gerald Berry serving as the first president.

The purpose of the club is to provide the students with an activity outside of class where they can discuss the problems they observe on their jobs. The club members hope to be able to solve some of these problems by discussing them with others. Mr. Terry and Col. Ball were the club advisors.

Bus Drivers Motivated By Responsibility

Through rain, snow, sleet, hail, or even sometimes a little sunshine the buses at South are run by a group of dedicated South students who are represented in a club. The purpose of South's Bus Drivers' Club is to promote safety, improve driver morale, increase the proficiency of drivers, and to recognize meritorious service. At monthly meetings the club heard various speakers such as Mr. D. W. Baucom, former assistant principal at South and now assistant superintendent of the school transportation department, who emphasized the purpose of the club.

G.A.A. Members Capture First Places

When it came to sports, the girls in the Girls Athletic Association were always where the action was. Lillian Fesperman, the president, and Mrs. Barentine and Miss Overcash, the advisors, scheduled many matches in field hockey, basketball and track with girls from other schools.

In addition to participating in sports events, the club also sponsored car washes and sold wood crafts. Money received from the projects was used to set up a scholarship fund and to give best player award charms to members on awards day.

1969–a year of surprises as far as South football. Hardly considered in the pre-season polls, the scrappy Sabres led by a stingy defense won five straight games and looked like the team to beat in the Southwestern 4A.

The onslaught began with Myers Park. The Mustangs had not reckoned on the new "monster" defense that was unveiled by rookie coach, Wayne Shadrick. The Mustangs and their vaunted passing attacks were thoroughly throttled with two interceptions by the Sabres, who won by a score of 15–7.

The following Friday, the Sabres visited the Lions of West Charlotte. Once more the defense excelled, holding the Lions to under 100 yards rushing and no yards in the air after Ted Elkins' touchdown plunge early in the second quarter, which was enough for a 6–0 win.

Next on the list were the Eagles of Greensboro Smith. Down 7–6 at halftime, the Sabres came back on a halfback pass from Randy Rhino to wingback Chuck Rogers. Quarterback, Jay Pennington, then hit Rhino for two points on a swing pass and the Sabres came away with a 14–7 win.

The Sabres then moved to take on the Wildcats of Garinger. The Sabres began the offense barrage with a 66 yard bomb from Jay Pennington to Frank Redd. While the offense proceeded to go for 258 yards, the defense stopped Garinger cold. The red clad Sabres left Memorial Stadium with a 27–12 victory.

The following week, led by scrambling Jay Pennington's two touchdown passes to Chuck Rogers and Lin Potts, the attackers crushed the Rams and cruised to a 35–14 conquest over Harding.

Sabres return to locker room after promising first half.

South traveled to play the Huskies of Hunter Huss. After the first five minutes the Sabres were down 14–0 because of a long touchdown bomb and fluke fumble recovery touchdown run. The shocked Gridsters stumbled home with a 26–12 loss.

The Sabres bounced back and showed the Red Tornados of Hickory a hard-hitting brand of football. The Sabres literally rolled over the Red Tornados on their way to a 30–7 win. In their homecoming game, the Sabres were expected to thrash Independence; however, they succumbed to the Patriots 22–20.

The Sabres were fired up as the contest with West approached. On a punt, the center snap by West was high out of the end zone, and South led 2–0. On the ensuing kick off the Sabres proceeded to drive the ball down the field scoring on a pass from Jay Pennington to Chuck Rogers. The Sabres led 10–3 at halftime. The team never would get going after a surprise halfback pass in the second half and went down once more 11–10.

The season's last game was with the East Mecklenburg Eagles. As it turned out, East played their sharpest game of the season and literally beat the Sabres. The final score was 21–0.

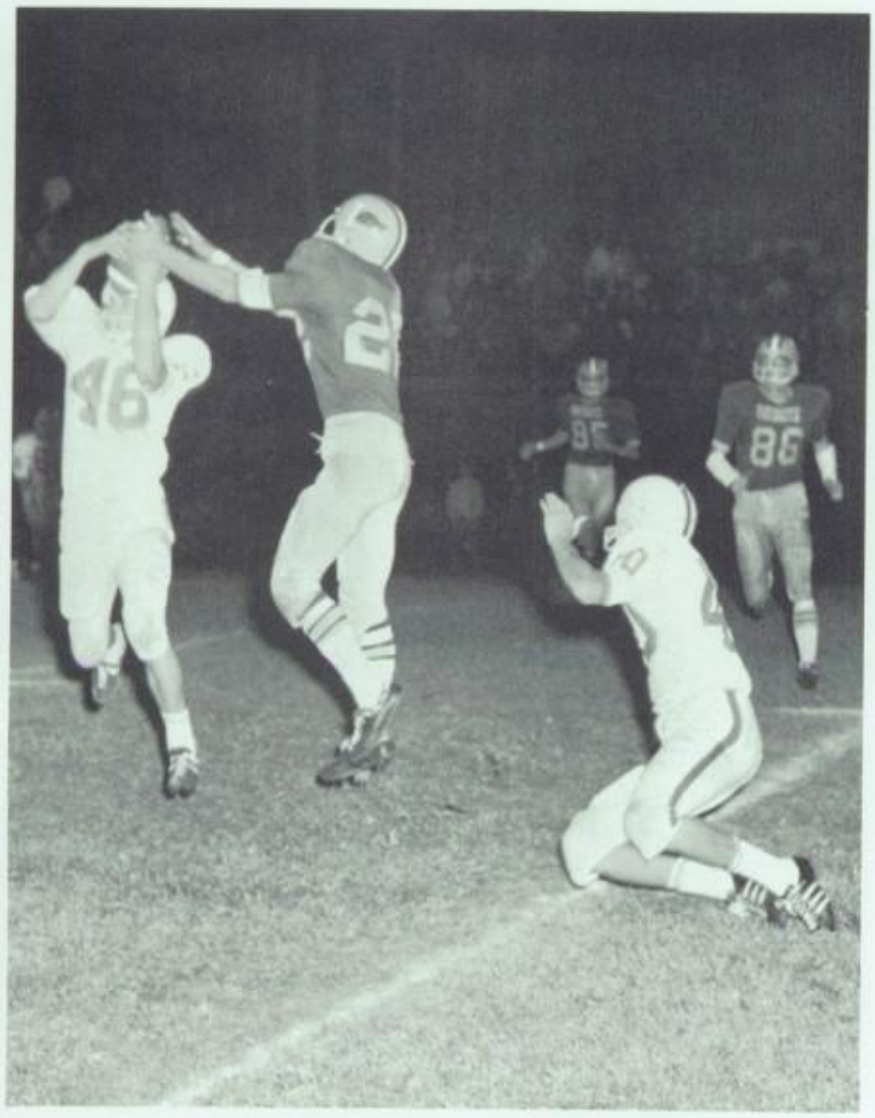
Experience To 1969 Season



Curtis Scott intercepts pass for defense against Independence.

The Sabres ended the season with a 6–4 record, but the year was not as dismal as it would seem. Two of the teams beaten by South, Myers Park and Greensboro Smith, went to the state semi-final playoff games. Two of the Sabre losses came by a combined total of 3 points.

The team was headed by co-captains Fud Hayes and Eddie Michael, who both made the Observer all-county team. Other outstanding seniors were Jay Pennington, the big quarterback with the rifle arm who was chosen by the team as the best back, and Wade Fox, at center, who was chosen as the most improved member on the squad. Michael, in addition to being an all-county linebacker, was a Shrine Bowl pick.

This year's Sabre football program was under the tutelage of first year coach, Wayne Shadrick, who came in and completely reorganized the offense and defense, and moved the personnel. His Tennessee "monster" defense led by lineback Eddie Michael and monster-man Curtis Scott, proved successful. The defensive backs, who intercepted 16 passes, were coached by Mack Herndon and Leo Brevard and led by safety-man, Gran Hearn. Aided by coached Fred Boger and Watt Burris, the Sabres exhibited a bruising ball-control offense that executed many long scoring drives. Although they did not achieve a record as great as some other past teams, the '69 edition of the Sabres showed that football would always be outstanding at South.

Now in its third year as a varsity sport, South's soccer team closed out a winning season under Dennis Baldwin. The Sabres claimed two wins over Myers Park, one of which was the opening game, which resulted in a close 3 to 2 victory in the overtime period. The season also ended with the Mustangs in a convincing 5 to 2 win. Christian High also met defeat under the Sabres in a 1 to 0 game. Independence became the top rival as in the first meeting South squeeked by with a 2 to 1 win. The Patriots, set for revenge, posted a 4 to 1 vicotry over South in a later game.

In the elimination for the state finals, South met a tragic defeat. After a deadlock match of scoreless play, the Patriots were declared winners claiming one corner kick for statistical record. A strong aggressive press was Baldwin's key emphasis as the Sabres attained a season record of fourteen goals.

A series of injuries plagued the team throughout the season. Important starters such as Craig McDonald, Dave Abercrombie, Steve Marbut, Bob Marx, and Ricky Mobley were missing intermittently from the lineups. However, seniors of the line and backfield drew the team close as a well-organized unit.

Mike Jones and Ed Shaw keep a fast pace at Freedom Park.

Under Dave Price's coaching, the South Harriers finished sixth in the state meet last fall. The Harriers were defeated only by Myers Park in a conference meet. Leading the cross country team were co-captains Gary Stroud and Cader Olive. Other top runners were Woody Moss, Ed Shaw, Tommy Caton, and Mike Jones. The Harriers came in third at the conference meet, fifth at the sectional meet, and sixth at the state meet.

Only one of the top five runners will not be returning next year. With the strong nucleus of juniors and sophomores returning, the team has high hopes for next year's fall season.

Dynamic Cagers Cap Season

Students eagerly awaited the coming of basketball season. On October 30 the sports fever began to rise as the 1970 basketball squad began its first week of practice. The players sweated, ran, and worked through the pre-season work-out under the leadership of 1969's Charlotte News Coach of the Year, Dave Price, who felt he had never had such an abundance of available talent. Back from the squad which finished fourth in the State 4A Tournament was co-captain Bobby Jones, a Charlotte Observer first-team all-county center and a definite college prospect. Three additional starters were returning as well. They were Don Sherrill, a co-captain and second-team all-county team member, Dee Jones at guards and Mike Dover at forward. In addition, there was a championship junior varsity team which produced starting forward John Chapman and Randy Rhino, a steady reserve at guard. There was also an outstanding sophomore, Mark Greiner who proved to be a valuable asset at forward.

Expectations were fulfilled. On December 2 the Sabres thrashed the Trojans of Olympic as an enthusiastic crowd watched in awe. The team went on to roll over such teams as Harding, Independence, Hickory, Myers Park, and Hunter Huss. There were dull spots, however, such as a heart-breaking one point loss to East Mecklenburg in the Eagle's gym. After a first quarter flurry in which the Sabres led by as much as eleven points, their shooting hands went cold, and they fell to the Eagles 63-62. Another loss came in the gym of the West Charlotte Lions who won on some hot fourth quarter shooting, despite the efforts of Bobby Jones and the defense. The loss to the Eagles was avenged when the Eagles ventured to South. Bobby Jones led a fourth quarter surge that overcame the hot shooting of George Jackson and the Eagles. The South spirit was never more in evidence as great crowds screamed at fever pitch making opponents regret their entrance into the Sabre den.

The teamwork complimented by the coaching lead to an 18-2 regular season division championship. Bobby Jones and Coach Price were again selected as Player and Coach of the Year.

The Sabres ran away with the Southwestern 4A Conference Tournament championships in three successive wins over Harding, Hickory, and Gastonia Ashley. Don Sherrill and Bobby Jones were named to the all-tournament team. After beating East Mecklenburg and West Charlotte for the District 6 championships, the team gained a chance to participate in the State 4A tournament in Greensboro.

In the first game at state, it took a record thirty-five point performance from Bobby Jones for the Sabres to pull out a 79–73 victory over Goldsboro. Against the host team Greensboro Grimsley, it took a jump shot by Steve Harris and two free throws by all-tournament choice Dee Jones to salvage a one-point 47–46 win. Bobby Jones banked in a short jump shot with fifteen seconds left to clinch a breath taking contest score of 59–58. Thus, the Sabre team brought home to South the first state championship in the school's history.

Wrestling in 1970 was disappointing for the South matmen because of a 7-8 record. The team faced a rebuilding year after the loss of ten varsity wrestlers from the '69 squad. Several starters were injured forcing many sophomores to take the place of more experienced wrestlers. Leading the 69-70 team were Captains Arch de Castrique and Jimmy Largen, along with Bob Bunzey and David Bursley. Highlighting the Season was the East Invitational where sophomore Craig de Castrique brought a first place win, Bob Bunzey captured second place, and Jimmy Largen and David Bursley each came in third. Other outstanding matches were South wins over West Charlotte, 56-0 and North, 43-11.

Sluggers Post Best Baseball Record

Coach Fred Boger's 1969 baseball team compiled a 12–6 record in 1969 which is the best South has ever had. Contributing to the success was the pitching of Mike Clark (6–2), Jay Pennington (2–2) and Chuck Rodgers (4–2). Ray Peck and Wes Hege led the team in hits with 21 and 20 respectively. Ray Peck and Randy Rhino led in runs, with 12 runs each. Leading in batting average were Wes Hege– .351, Don Sherrill– .382, and Ray Peck– .404. The 1970 team will have seven players returning from the '69 team including Jay Pennington and Chuck Rodgers. With the many returning juniors and sophomores the 1970 team will be even stronger.

Sabre Trackmen Set County Records

The agony of athletic competition is revealed in the facial expression of Levi Smith.

Track Captain Gary Stroud accelerates as he gains a first place finish for South.

Several records were broken by the Sabre trackmen. Because of lack of practice, they finished fourth in their first meet, but improved later in the season. Second place finishes at the Queen City Relays, the Sectional meet, and the conference meet highlighted the season. Several Sabre trackmen qualified for the state meet, bringing a sixth place for the team. Bill Nelson finished third in the 220 yard dash and Bobby Jones finished second in the high jump. The 880 relay team also finished third.

Several school records were broken in the '69 season. Joe Hamilton, set a school record in the broad jump and low hurdles. Bobby Jones' jump of 6' 7" 3/4 also set a record. Jon Henkel threw the discus for a South record of 144' 8".

1970's team will be hurt by the graduating seniors. Leading the Sabres in the 1970 season will be Bobby Jones, Gary Stroud, Cader Olive, Dean Stewman, Gran Hearn, Nicky Crawford, Ted Elkins, Levi Smith, and Dennis Starnes. These athletes should form the nucleus for Sabre track in the future.

Finishing third in their district and fourth in the 4-A Conference, the Golf team enjoyed a successful year. With the experience of three returning lettermen, the team was able to qualify for the state golf tournament. Seniors, Greg Ledford, Jim Dalgleish, George Acker, and Junior, Jim Wiley were chosen to represent the team at the Chapel Hill state tournament. Under the brilliant playing of Greg Ledford, team captain, they finished with a fifth place in the state. Because of experience acquired during the year, Sabre golfers are expected to return in top contention for the 4-A Conference title.

Jim Wiley follows through with famous form.

Tennis Team Serves Successful Year

Chris Reynolds swings high for opponents ball.

The 1969 tennis team included several outstanding players who qualified in the district and sectional tournaments. Bobby Marx and Chris Reynolds qualified in the state tournament at Chapel Hill. In the sectional tournament Chris and Bobby placed third in the doubles competition. Many good players helped the South tennis team post a 9–3 record. Under the coaching of Bill Megginson, the team had many outstanding matches against such tough competition as West Charlotte, Independence and East Mecklenburg.

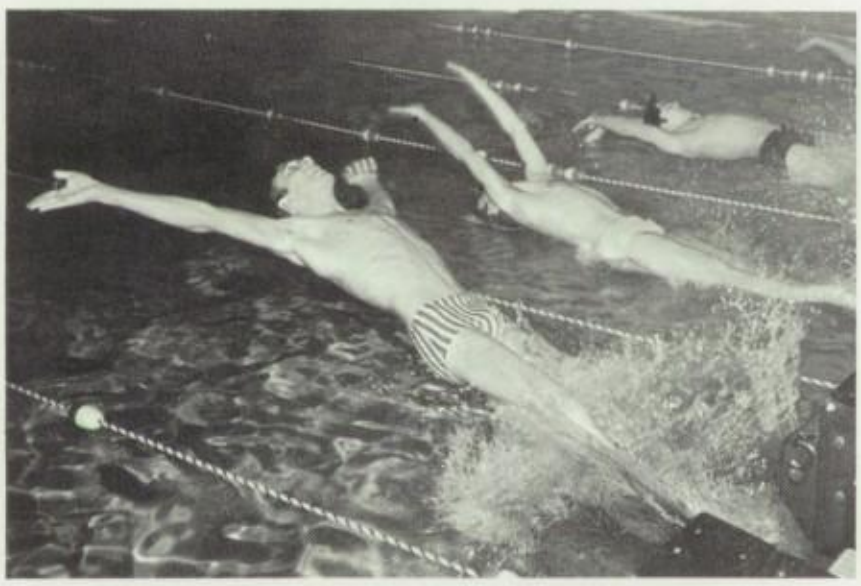
Victorious Doug Fleck takes an early lead in the backstroke event.



Under the direction of Coach Baldwin, the swim team boasted one of its record seasons. Jim Schliestett and Jack Hobbs, co-captains of the squad, led veterans and newcomers for the 1970 season.

Highlighting the new season, events of the 200 yard medly relay and 400 yard freestyle relay posted new times. Junior captain Schliestett broke records in the 200 yard freestyle, 100 yard back, and 50 yard free events. Another fine record is forecast for next year because of the loss of only a few key seniors.

Larry Hunter comes up to make the stop on an Independence pass receiver.

The '69 Sabre junior varsity football season started out well with a victory over East Mecklenburg, a tie with Myers Park, and a win over West Charlotte's Lion Cubs. After this game, the injuries sustained in the first three games began to take their toll and the team dropped two straight games to Garinger and Harding. While still struggling to preserve their season, they came back for a tie with Hickory and a win over Independence. The season however ended dismally with a loss to West.

The mediocre 3–3–2 season was bright in spots. Which were often dimmed by injuries to key personnel. The team, coached by Watt Burris produced some fine material for next year varsity in split end; Nelson Dudley, running back; Glenn Devore, and safety man; Larry Hunter.

Flying Ed Browning puts one in for two points.

Junior varsity basketball, normally not a great spectacle, was really something to see this year. Under the direction of Coach Mack Herndon, the J.V.'s were led by co-captains Ed Browning and Walter Davis, along with Danny Turner and Scott Ramey. The team showed good knowledge of fundamentals and a great ability to score. According to Coach Herndon, their experience will be a valuable asset to next year's varsity team.

J.V. Sluggers Bag City Championship

Rocky Sullivan smashes a single.

For the second year in a row the 1969 Junior Varsity baseball team won the Charlotte city-championship. Leading the team in hits and RBI's was Eddie Michael with a .450 batting average. With eleven players batting .250 or better, the J.V. team averaged .277.

Leading pitchers included John Elliot and Tom Washburn. Coached by Dennis Baldwin, the J.V.'s completed the season with an 8-4 record. The batting and pitching potential of the team encouraged a good outlook for future seasons.

Progress Through Administration

Mr. James W. Emerson
Catawba College, A.B.; Appalachian State Univ., M.A.; Assistant Principal

Mr. Harold Baker McNeill
Guildord College, B.S.; U.N.C.-G.; Assistant Principal, Sponsor for Interact Club

Hazards of construction, the problems with new students, and the addition of new teachers and new students have kept the administration constantly on the go.

Mr. E. Hal Edmisten, who has been South's principal for ten years, managed to keep things running smoothly even with the added pressures of the year.

Mr. James Emerson, the assistant principal, was joined by another assistant principal, Mr. Harold McNeill, who took over some of the important duties of assistant principal, such as the administration of books. Mr. Emerson was in charge of the bus transportation system. The two men collaborated on other duties and discipline problems.

Even though the face of South has changed, the image which South projects is the same. This image is due to the fact that the administration stresses the idea that "South is a leader."

Mrs. Doris A. Walton
Univ. of Florida, B.A., M.A.; Guidance Counselor

The Guidance Department underwent a change in the number of staff members and in the methods they used. To enable the counselors to have more time to talk directly to the students, the homeroom period was extended to twenty minutes. Three new counselors joined the staff this year. Mrs. Walton, Mr. Harris, and Miss Brown, the new members, and Mrs. High helped with the juniors and sophomores. Mrs. Lockhart was in charge of the seniors.

Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Cooper, and Mrs. Gibson, other office workers. acted as secretaries and financial secretary, respectively. Their duties included filling out transcripts for college-bound students and keeping all financial records of the various school clubs and organizations.

The counselors and secretaries helped make it possible for the school to run smoothly.

In order to keep up with changing times and attitudes South's history department has created three new courses. Afro American cultures was added to inform students about the developments of black civilizations. Also, for those wishing to pursue a political career, students were offered a class in government and economics. In addition, humanities, and advanced class of twentieth century events was taught by Mrs. Adele Harris, department head.

The Charlotte Exchange Student Program, which provided South with two interesting foreign students, helped enhance the activities of the history department. New courses, students, and the addition of five teachers aided South in presenting the total range of historical influence.

South's Math Department expanded its past cirriculum by offering three new courses. Math concepts, offered for the first time, was valuable as a refresher on mathematical principles.

Analysis was also created as a course similar to functions and more difficult than math concepts. Mrs. Eleanor Brevard, department head, advised two students in an independent study program of calculus.

Consumer math, which teaches practical uses of mathematics, was added to help students pursuing a business career. In the Math Department, new courses plus old courses equaled a curriculum invaluable to South's students.

Univ. of Minn., B.S.; Spanish I, IV, V, Spanish Honor Society Sponsor, Head of Spanish Department

Mrs. Alix Pavlic Phillips
Florida State Univ., B.A.; French I, II, IV, V, French Club Sponsor

Mrs. Barentine "takes five" between change of classes.

Mrs. Downer casts a delightful glance toward her Spanish class.

French, Spanish, and Latin are the selection of languages offered from which students can choose. A tri-language banquet for students and teachers unified the classical with the modern languages.

French V was offered for the first time as a course for language-oriented students interested in in-depth study of major literary works.

Spanish study was enriched by movies and slides of Spanish-speaking countries, and talks by outside speakers of Spanish origin.

Several Latin students represented South at the state-wide Latin Convention held at U.N.C.-CH. Their study was highlighted by a day of banquets, discussions, and contests.

The interest of South students in languages is indicated by their extra-cirricular as well as school participation in language activities.

Converse College, B.S.; Queens College; U.N.C.-CH.; Biology, Physics, Physical Science

N.C. State Univ., B.S.; William & Mary, M.ED; Chemistry I, Science Club Advisor

South was evaluated as having one of the best Science departments in North Carolina by the State Department of Public Instruction. This honor was bestowed on our school because South is the only school in this state to offer special classes for second year Biology studies. The Science Department, which had ten staff members and six laboratory classrooms, offered Biology I and II, Physics, and Physical Science to approximately 1,400 students.

Advanced students had the opportunity to enter the Westinghouse Talent Search competition, as well as to take the Advanced Placement examination in Biology.

The recently added Chemistry II class enabled thirteen students to learn more about chemical properties. The Science Department, headed by Miss Jean McNeely, has expanded to accomodate the growing needs of the scientific-minded student.

Mrs. Brevard analyses her "functions" as a teacher.

Mr. Clarence E. Wilson
Johnson C. Smith Univ., B.S.; Driver Education

Mr. Donald T. Wright
Appalachian State Univ., B.S.; Driver Education

Coach Price contemplates a winning season.

Skills and fundamentals of approximately fifteen different sports are taught to those who participate in Physical Education.

By using skills learned in the classroom, girls may participate in an intramural club, the Girl's Athletic Association, advised by Mrs. Estelle L. Barentine and Miss Barbara A. Overcash. This club enables girls to form teams and compete against other school teams in basketball, track, and field hockey.

Coach Watt Burris, the department head, was joined in the physical education program by a new and successful football coach, Wayne Shadrick. Coach Burris is also assisted by Coaches Price, Boger, Baldwin, and Herndon.

The Driver Education program, under department head Don Wright, was incorporated into the physical education classes. The students were taught fundamental skills in the classroom, in addition to actual behind-the-wheel training.

Sports played an important role at South, for spectators as well as participants. The assistance of the Physical Education Department helped in the preparation of outstanding high school athletes.

Electives Enhance Daily Routine

Mrs. Betty E. Standish
DePaw Univ., A.B.; Distributive Education, Fashion Merchandising, D.E.C.A. Sponsor

Mrs. Virginia Winget
Winthrop College, B.A., M.A.; Psychology, Student Council Advisor

South teachers show their school spirit at an exciting East-South football game.

Mr. Wilson labels the engine parts as interested students absorb the facts.

Electives, South's most active courses, range from home economics, psychology-sociology, and art to engine repair. New courses in fashion design and fashion merchandising were added to the home economics department to offer more variety.

Through the art department, scenery was provided for the play put on by the drama department, and in the spring many art students sold their projects to the other members of the student body.

Classes in psychology-sociology went on a field trip to Morganton in order to learn various behavior patterns of man. Elective courses in electronics, engine repair, drafting, and mechanical drawing helped students obtain information and training necessary in the preparation for a future job. The shop classes also made useful projects, some of which were used for props in plays for the drama and music departments.

Students choose the electives according to their interests and to the amount of time available in their schedules. The wide variety of electives allowed more students to show talents in their favorite fields.

Culture Reaches Students Through Music and Books

Miss Charlotte Hill
Concord College, B.S. Librarian

Mrs. Muriel B. Livingston
Western Maryland College, B.A.; Winthrop College; Appalachian State Univ.; Librarian, Literary Society Advisor

Mrs. Barbara M. Perry

East Carolina Univ., B.S.; Music Theory, Orchestra, Band, Band Director

Mrs. LaRue Langley Perry
Greensboro College, B.M.; Appalachian State Univ.; U.N.C.-CH.; Mixed Chorus, Choir, Girls Ensemble, Teen Tones, South Men Advisor

Although confused by construction, the old library did not halt its normal functions. Mrs. Livingston, Mrs. Perry, and Miss Hill worked diligently throughout the year to keep track of the 16,239 books.

The addition of new books and reference materials, and the completion of the carpeted and air-conditioned building increased the comfort and the potential of South's library.

The Music Department includes Choir, Girl's Choir, Mixed Chorus, Band, Orchestra, and a new course in Music Theory and Music Appreciation. These groups performed at dozens of functions, such as PTA, Festival in the Park, the football games, Spring Concert, Six Flags over Georgia, and the annual Christmas program.

Coach Shadrick anxiously awaits on upcoming touchdown.

Mr. Neel perfects the balanced sound of the coveted Sabre band.

Teachers find time to socialize during their lunch hour.

Charlie Ritchie gets a "kick" out of Mr. Lawrence's quarterbacking.

To enable the student to become better acquaintea with modern office techniques, a new course, Business Machines and Office Practice, was offered. Also new in the curriculum was a semester course in Business Administration teamed with a second semester of Recordkeeping.

The Business Club, seeking to involve more students in the commercial world, was sponsored by Mrs. Gladys Brewer, department head.

Senior Follies Revolutionize The '70's

Inspiring young dancers give the Senior Follies line-up "A Taste of Apricot Brandy."

Goddess of fire, Debby Royal, practices a tribute to the gods.

Stephanie Roth rids her "Wedding Bell Blues" as Mark Jorgenson shyly accepts her proposal.

Senior Follies advisors discuss possible acts during auditions.

Mary Ann Bishop and Kathy Rombo demonstrate their patriotism in an era of Revolution.

A new decade marked the beginning of the South Senior's Revolution '70.

Assisted by the Drama Club, Jack Hobbs, Master of Ceremonies, entertained the audience during the revolution. Starting off, the show, presented a bit of fire and devilish ways. A new cultural aspect of the '70's was introduced in the "Nutcracker Suite" ballet, done by our talented lettermen. Performances of songs and dance routines by soloists and groups demonstrated the various music scenes. As a taste of psychedelic jazz hit, the senior girls "psyched-out" to "Apricot Brandy". Several other experienced souls "who should have danced all night" portrayed some of the shocking scenes of the '70's. With peace and love as goals for the '70's, South's Revolution ended with a display of patriotism in a "Yankee Doodle" tap dance.

Juniors Assume Leadership

Ted Elkins, Junior Class vice-president, with his many talents, opens the door of opportunity for South.

Stephanie Fellos demonstrates her willingness to serve by being Junior Class secretary of 1969-70.

Rick Paules, Junior Class treasurer, appropriates funds for the school store.

Miss Hatley, Junior Class advisor, personifies the dedicated teacher.

Football games begin the year with action.

Service Is Our Motto

Dearest Margo,

What can I say to the person who was my crib-mate? I wish we'd known each other then, but I'm thankful we met in 9th grade. Since then you've been more than a sister to me. We've shared so much — growing up together. I'm so happy for you now. You deserve Frank and anyone or anything else that will make you happy. I've always felt closer to you than to most people and I appreciate it. It means a lot to me knowing that I can always turn to you when things are bad. Even though I've changed a lot this year I'm glad we could remain close. Of all my "old" friends (except Carol) you were the only one who could understand my changes and accept me as I am and not question my actions or motives. for that I thank you.

We've survived through much together — many good times — a few bad. Actually — I think we get along great. We really should die three days apart because that would be so symbolic. Look at it this way — I'll always remember when your birthday is. Don't ever forget our DOORKNOBS either. (That also is symbolic) There's really nothing else to say. I would hope that you know how I feel. I know we'll remain close through the years because our friendship is so strong. I know you'll get a lot out of life — you have so much to offer. You're a beautiful person, Margaret. I Love You.

(Don't forget to come see me at E.C.U. next year — & I hope you want to write TONS of letters.)

Margaret,

Greetings from ALABAMA! (Really AUBURN!)

Well, Well!

Fancy that!

I don't know how I ever got here but since I've met a great bunch of people maybe it was worth it. I've really enjoyed it in World History and I hope I'll be seeing you sometime in the future. Good luck in whatever you'll be doing! Thanks for being great to me since I moved here. I really appreciate all the neat people.

Love ya,

There was this road,
And it led up-hill
And it led down-hill
And round and in and out.

And the traffic was legs,
Legs from the knees down,
Coming and going,
Never pausing.

And the gutters gurgled
With the rain's overflow,
And the sticks on the pavement
Blindly tapped and tapped.

What drew the legs along
Was the never-stopping,
And the senseless, frightening
Fate of being legs.

Legs for the road,
The road for legs,
Resolutely nowhere
In both directions.

My legs at least
Were not in that rout;
On grass by the road-side
Entire I stood,

Watching the unstoppable
Legs go by
With never a stumble
Between step and step.

Though my smile was broad
The legs could not see,
Though my laugh was loud
The legs could not hear.

My head dizzied, then:
I wondered suddenly,
Might I too be a walker
From the knees down?

Gently I touched my shins.
The doubt unchained them:
They had run in twenty puddles
Before I regained them.

Margaret,

It seems so funny (?) being seniors (at last) and I sure have enjoyed knowing you in junior hi and high school. You said you got up on a horse but I am still waiting for the day when I see you galloping on a fair steed. Good luck at UNCC - maybe I'll see ya there sometimes. Great luck in the future. You're really a sweet girl

Love,
Donna

Margaret,

Well, here I am signing your annual again - it reminds me of last year when I signed it in History. Frank was sitting across the room making faces - so much has happened to us in the years we've known each other - some bad, most good. This year hasn't been so hot cause we haven't seen each other so much. I'm so glad about you + Frank + I hope you two stay together a long long time. I'm sure next year you'll come up to Guilford + we'll have a great time -

Remember our trips to the beach, the time you rode Moe, lunch last year, Phil, your party, Rick + Buddy, French in the 10th grade, football games, etc, etc.... You're about one of my bestest friends + I'll never forget you or your family. It was so great to be able to sit on our beds with the candle burning + have a good talk → I hope we have many more fun times together. I'm sure we will.

Thank you for your friendship over the years - you're one of my favorite people ——

love,

Debby

NOW TO SAY "THANK YOU!" YOU HAVE WHAT SO MANY OTHERS DON'T. TOO MANY GIRLS ARE NOT PRETTY, HAVE NO PERSONALITY, OR RIGHT COMPOSURE, & OF THOSE WHO HAVE THESE, THERE IS STILL SOME SMALL BLOCK. ONLY A SELECT FEW HAVE THE CLOSEST TO PERFECT 6"-9"-10" ION. YOU ARE ONE. I'M PROUD TO SAY FRANK & I HAVE "STANDARDS" (PEOPLE WE WOULD DATE) PARTICULARLY HIGH. YOU ARE AN EXAMPLE OF THIS STRICTNESS- AS IS BARB; SOMETIMES WE MAY MISS OUT BECAUSE OF OUR SELECTION, BUT THERE ARE THOSE LIKE YOURSELF WHO DO EXIST. WE CONSIDER OURSELVES LUCKY TO "NET" A "TYPE" PERSON OF YOUR CALIBER- SINCE IT'S USUALLY THE OTHER GUY WHO GETS ALL THE GOOD ONES-(GIRLS THAT IS.) YOU HAVE A FINE WORLD- MAKE SURE IT DEVELOPES TO THE BEST. A LOT GOING FOR YOU-HOPE ALL TURNS TO HAPPINESS FOREVER.

Best Luck

first Margaret, as I know we did not seem to get along very well & I think I know why. But you can forget her- nothing like that should stop other people from being friends & I have enjoyed knowing you & realizing what a really great girl you are! Good Luck in college and whatever you do in life - although I can't tell you do not need my luck! Frank is a great guy - Keep him!

Lots of Luck with a Great Guy

M.M.D.B. Margaret,

First of all I want to thank you for the most beautiful year of my life. All the memories I have of you are the greatest! From the very first day that I took you home from school until now has been the most memorable part of my life. I remember well the Sundays that you invited me over to your house and the telephone call and the incident at the pool. Those two Sunday's showed me the differences in maturity and trust. I was never more delighted by an invitation than the one you presented me when you asked me to go to your church party Feb 13. The pick-nic at Sandy's was great, along with the "unofficial." I remember "Funny Girl" when I didn't look to see you cry in time. Then I got cookies and lost my license for a month, I don't guess you or I will forget that! At least Brent was kind enough to allow us to double with them. And then there's my dinner and Mrs. Mistoe which caused you to vomit both. One Sunday in particular I remember well. That is Easter Sunday when you sang the solo in church while I had the pleasure of listening. You really have a beautiful voice, I wish I could hear more of it! That's just the beginning of all the things that are so good about you. Your personality leaves nothing to be desired, and you carry yourself as well as any person I can remember. You are as pretty as a young woman could possibly be, And most important to me is your thoughtfulness and consideration. You really make me feel like somebody. I really enjoy every second I am with you. The Junior-Senior was great - far beyond my expectations. The Costume-Ball dance was a change - and a very nice one at that. The Sunday you went to the river with us was a lot of fun. I'm glad we were fortunate to be together so much. The retreat to the mountains is probably the most favorites of my memories. So much time together and such a beautiful tranquil- That weekend tops all of my life's experiences of weekends. All of these memories are beautiful, and I only hope for an even greater future. I hope you'll be happy next year at UNC-C. I know you'll get a lot out of college. Too bad Duke doesn't play UNC-C in any athletics. I hope I'll be free to come down for visits to Charlotte (your) and even more so I hope I'll be welcome at a certain someone's house! It'll be a long winter between the visits. I sincerely hope you'll enjoy what you're doing next year. I also hope your future lifetime will be most rewarding. I know you'll not fall short of success. I just hope I'll be around to share your happiness and to comfort you when things don't go the way you'd like for them to. I can truthfully say that no one has ever given me the soothing happiness that you give me when you are near. I also know a deep emptyness when we are apart. I know that my feelings for you have never been equaled by anyone else, nor will they ever be. You have all my wishes for supreme happiness and contentment. I thank you for the most beautiful three months of my life and the unendly possibilities of the future. All my love, forever!

Ever through I haven't had the chance to get to know you very well, I have really enjoyed sitting behind you & Chemistry. I haven't really been worried about what I'm going to be doing after I graduate, but now I have to leave and go to college, next year now really knowing what happens. I just hope I make it - and you too. Good luck!

A lot of things happened this year that I sure didn't expect. Leave it to the army to botch things up. Maybe I'm judging them too quick. Who else is married going to graduate, going to Germany, and have a friend like you? Let's face it, We are very unique people. Margaret, we haven't been as good of friends as we were last year, but I do value your friendship. I wish you a lot of luck at college and happiness in everything you do

Margaret,
It's been great having you in Study Hall the Girls Prior. I have enjoyed knowing you this year. Take care of my little brother for me. He sure got into trouble when he was younger. Have a great summer. Hope you don't be back next year so if I don't see you around, just let me say Good Luck & Lots of love,

Dear, Dear Maggit,
It's been fun these last three years. I can't believe it's over. We've had some great times together, & some bad, too many bad. I really am sorry about the bad ones. I'm glad things are working out so great for you. You deserve it after all the Hell you got from me. Things just might be changing for the better for me too. After all the mess, I'm glad we are still good friends.
Have fun always! Love,
Phil Z.
